Rules on Official Dress

*415. SHRI MOHINDER SINGH KALYAN :

DR. SHRIKANT RAM CHANDRA JICHKAR :

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) what are the rules on official dress as on 1st March, 1993;

(b) whether Government have received some requests for change of official dress;

(c) what is the reason for not changing the official dress even after 45 years of independence;

(d) what are the occasions where the rules of official dress are strictly enforced; and

(e) which are the categories excluded from rules of official dress even at functions or occasions which require strict enforcement of such rules?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B. CHAVAN) : (a) A statement is laid on the Table of the House. (See below)

(b) to (e) Government's instructions on the dress to be worn by civilian officers (men and women) on different occasions are in the nature of suggestions. Government expects all civilian officers to wear the recommended dress on all the occasions specified. No formal requests have been received for change of the recommended dress although one or two individual suggestions for changes have been received. No need has, however, been felt for a radical departure from the recommended dress.

Statement

Recommended Dress for Civilian Officers (Men and Women)

MEN

Recommendation
1. For formal or ceremonial occasions	Black sherwani and white or cream chooridar pyjama or a black short buttoned-up coat and black, white or cream trousers. In the hot weather the sherwani or the coat may also be white or cream.
2. For less formal occasions and evening parties.	A black, short buttoned-up coat and black or white trousers. In the hot weather, a white or cream coloured coat may be worn.
3. Office dress.	A short buttoned-up coat and trousers which need not be of the same colour. Either garment may be white, grey or of any other quiet shade. Loud or gaudy colours should be avoided.

In the hot weather a bush-shirt may be worn informally in office.

NOTE I—(1) The material may be cotton, silk or wool, as found suitable, but it should be Swadeshi, preferably hand-spun and hand-woven.

(2) On all formal occasions when officials have to meet the President or at formal functions at which the President is present, it is the President's desire that the clothes worn by them should be of hand-spun and hand-woven material.

WOMEN

Recommendation.
1. For formal or ceremonial occasions.	Sober coloured Sari, of plain material—the border, if any, to be simple.
2. For less formal occasions and evening parties	Sari as in above or Shalwar, Kamiz and Doopata.
3. Office Dress.	Plain cotton or silk Sari without a border or with simple border; or Shalwar, Kamiz and Doopata or for those who habitually wear them, skirt and blouse.

NOTE :—(1) Materials, colour schemes and designs should be such as would help to maintain dignity and decorum. Saris and blouses worn in Office should be of sober colours and blouse pieces should be of adequate length. Very bright colours gay or florid desings and striking patterns should be avoided; the same applies to Shalwar and Kamiz and Skirt and Blouse.

(2) The materials should be Swadeshi, if possible hand-spun and hand-woven.

Shortage of Medicines in Rajender Babu T.B. Hospital, Delhi

*416. SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA :
DR. BAPU KALDATE :

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware of the acute shortage of medicines in Rajender Babu T. B. Hospital, Delhi and that the patients have either to purchase the prescribed medicines from the open market or remain without medicines;

(b) whether Government are also aware of the unhygienic conditions in the Rajender Babu T. B. Hospital;

(c) if so, whether any enquiry has been conducted into the working of the Rajender Babu T. B. Hospital by Government;

(d) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(e) the measures taken by Government to improve the situation ?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI B. SHANKARANAND) : (a) to (e) According to Municipal Corporation of Delhi, at present there is no shortage of medicines and proper hygiene is being maintained.

Development of National Highways in Orissa

*417. SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR SAHU: Will the Minister of SURFACE TRANSPORT be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have received any proposals and demands for new National Highways and missing links in Orissa; and
